1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The art of record fails to teach, suggest or render obvious the following limitations found in independent claims 1, 7 and 13:

- assigning a next directory to a next available processor in an ordered manner to allow the next available processor to compile at least one file within the directory;
- compiling by the next available processor that at least on file within the next directory; and
- repeating the assigning and compiling steps until there are no more directories to be compiled.

As Appellant points out in the Brief on p. 9-11, Gross does not teach or suggest such claimed limitations. The claimed invention uses these steps to improve the compilation process by reducing the compile time of a large program while minimizing dependency violations, as described in the specification p. 3:20-4:10 and p. 6:8-19.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
